Name	: Period:
Clo	sing Remarks should include:
	What is the topic you are debating and why is it important? Restated Claim
•	-Restate your claim on the argument in different words Closing Statement -Remind your reader why this is important and leave them with something to reflect upon
Possi	ible Ideas:
you ar Get er Use a i	rage action: Is there something that you want people to do that could help the side re arguing for (your cause) motional: appeal to the pathos rhetorical strategy. n anecdote: Tell a story that helps your cause. de food for thought: Leave people with something to think about.
	